

“M” BELLISHMENTS

STEVE KAHAN

Hollis Hills, New York

In the matching quiz that follows, twenty clues for targeted words have been supplied in each of two columns. Those in Column B can be manufactured from their appropriate counterparts in Column A by inserting the letter “M” into their interiors. For instance, if “managed” appeared in Column A and “cultivated” appeared in Column B, an “M” placed into the word FARED would yield FARMED.

Don’t be “M”barrassed if you fail to make all twenty matches here. On the other hand, a sweet treat might be in order if you do. Perhaps some “M” and “M”s would be appropriate!
